

CUSTOMS INFORMATION

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- Don't use P.B.O or MISCELANEOUS.
- The inventory or packing list must contain the exact description of the household goods; it must have a value in dollars for "Customs Purposes".

Nº BOX	DESCRIPTION	USED OR NEW	TOTAL OF QUANTITY OF EACH ITEM OF THE BOX	VALUE USD.	WEIGHT (kg)
1	MUEBLE DE EQUIPO DE SALA	USADO	1	50,00
2	ART. COCINA: 4 ollas, 4 sartenes, 1 juego de cubiertos	USADO	9	80,00
3	ROPA DE MUJER: 5 zapatos, 3 pantalones, 2 camisas	USADO	10	30,00	25
4	ROPA DE HOMBRE: 10 medias, 4 cinturones, 1 camiseta	USADO	15	30,00	30*
TOTALES			4	190,00	55

- Please don't include in the shipment freezers with refrigerant R12; food, beverages, cosmetics, medicines, cleaning supplies, chemical products.
- Please take note that the insurance value and Customs value are different: Insurance is a "reposition value", Customs should be the cost of used items.
- BE ADVISED THAT HHG SHIPMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO 100% INSPECTION. QUANTITIES MUST BE COHERENT TO THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE MOVING INTO ECUADOR (E.G. CANNOT BRING 6 TVs IF THE FAMILY SIZE IS 3)
- Clothing, shoes, clothing accessories and/or apparel must not exceed 200 kg per family member coming to settle in Ecuador, each box or package shall come fully identified and their weight stated in the inventory or packing list.
- PACKING LIST MUST BE ITEMIZED IN DETAIL REGARDING CONTENTS OF EACH AND EVERY BOX.
- Be advised that Ecuadorian Customs regulations only allow 1 shipment with duty-free entrance (Air or Maritime). Ecuadorian Customs regulations do not allow 2 shipments, not even paying taxes.
- IF MORE THAN 1 CONTAINER IS BEING IMPORTED THOSE MUST BE UNDER THE SAME OBL.
- Any person who comes to establish themselves in Ecuador will have a maximum of (6) six months from the last entry to the country to enter their household goods duty free. After that period shipment will be subject of taxes and duties.

ECUADORIAN CUSTOMS REQUIREMENTS:

Art. 15: Household Goods and Work Equipment. - For import household goods and work equipment, Customs will consider one person to the familiar group (spouse and children), even if spouse has separate ownership. If sons or daughters are adults and want to apply for separate exemption of Household Goods, they must produce documentation as proof of self-support to Customs with consularized documents at the origin Ecuadorian Consulate, in order to obtain a separate exception.

To obtain Tax Exception, it is necessary to comply with the following requirements:

FOR FOREIGNS:

Immigrant visas must have stamped visa on passport VALID FOR 2 YEAR OR MORE

Non immigrant visas, when the permanence in the Country will be more than two year. Customer must show a work contract and it must be legalized in Ecuador.

Affidavit Declaration or "Sworn Statement" issued, legalized and stamped by an Ecuadorian Consulate in origin or any Notary Public in Ecuador (recommended), stating that he will come to establish permanent residence in Ecuador with a detailed and valued list of the complete household goods. This document must show approximate date of shipment(s) arrival to Ecuador.

In Ecuador, customer must obtain a "Migratory Certificate" (Movimiento Migratorio) issued by Migration Police for customs clearance.

Owner must be present in Ecuador in order to obtain customs clearance.

FOR MORE INFORMATION PLEASE GO TO WWW.ADUANA.GOB.EC