"Discover the Difference with Orbit"...

Important Notice: - As you may be aware, the shipping industry is currently experiencing widespread disruption.

LAND Land freight companies are reducing, cancelling and changing services – significantly impacting our ability to secure bookings on trucks to many North American destinations. These conditions, combined with huge increases in the cost of diesel fuel and regular freight rate increases due to demand exceeding supply, have created an unprecedented situation. In this environment,

OCEAN Shipping lines are reducing, cancelling and changing services – significantly impacting our ability to secure bookings on vessels to most worldwide destinations. These conditions, combined with port congestion around the world and regular freight rate increases due to demand exceeding supply, have created an unprecedented situation. In this environment,

Orbit will, of course, do all we can to mitigate these issues and keep you updated throughout these challenging times. However, Orbit International Moving cannot accept responsibility nor be held liable for any delays, extended transit times. Extra costs that may be incurred and need to be collected.
