Hello Nadim,

I have talked with our accounting department regarding the monthly storage charges as your shipment is still in our warehouse.

This shipment has been in our warehouse since 2018 and the warehouse rates have gone up. You have been a very good client who continues to make payments so I did negotiate with our accounting department, although your rates have gone up, we kept it down lower than the current rates. They have provided me with an updated invoice for storage coverage from January 11, 2023 through to April 10, 2023.

The balance owed at this point is $1,575.00 Cdn.

The previous balance of $2,062.00 Cdn is currently on hold – to be reviewed prior to shipping.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you and kind regards,

Susan Anderson

Hello Nadim,

Hello Nadim,

I was reminded to let you know that Orbit recognizes that it is okay for you to pay minimum $500/month until April 11, 2023 towards this invoice.
